

ACCURATE PATIENT IDENTIFICATION IS FUNDAMENTAL TO PATIENT SAFETY

BUILD ROBUST SYSTEMS TO AVOID PATIENT
MISIDENTIFICATION

SHOT
Serious Hazards
of Transfusion

Do we know who they are?

Accurate and complete patient identification for safe transfusion in children and neonates

The webinar was held on 19 July 2023 with a total of approximately 199 attendees

International community
Attendees from

Canada
France
Germany
United States
Isle of Man
Finland
Qatar
Albania
Nigeria
Costa Rica

62 attendees completed the live poll at the end of the webinar

60 attendees said they found this webinar "VERY" or
"MOSTLY" useful

The SHOT team would like to thank all the panellists and attendees for this amazing
webinar

SHOT educational resources Are you aware of them?

66% attendees use the SHOT videos as part of the organisation wide transfusion educational programmes and/or for personal learning

66% attendees found the SHOT Bites very useful/somewhat useful

54% of attendees said that were either not aware of the patient page or had not visited the patient page.

Let's increase awareness!

Have you downloaded the SHOT app?
All the SHOT resources under your fingertips Click here to find out how

Click here to visit the patients' page Click here to access SHOT videos Click here to access SHOT Bites
Click here to access more SHOT webinars

IT TAKES TWO TO MATCH ME

FOR ROUTINE TRANSFUSIONS, REMEMBER TWO INDEPENDENT SAMPLES ARE NEEDED TO ENSURE SAFETY

SHOT
Serious Hazards
of Transfusion